The Children's Education Alliance of Missouri honored Rachel Keller Brown at its most recent event, Once Upon A Time. The event was held to recognize Rachel's leadership in grassroots policy change efforts at the school, district and state level. The goal of the organization is to engage in policy change within the education system to allow students from all regions to have equal access to quality education. Amongst the crowd that evening was spotted City of St.Louis Mayor Francis Slay, local marketing mogul Bob Kochan, as well as public relations expert Laura Slay.
