

You Can Make a Difference

“A small body of determined spirits fired by an unquenchable faith in their mission can alter the course of history.”

~Mahatma Gandhi

There are many ways to get involved in Missouri's education reform efforts with CEAM. Here are some examples:

Become informed

1. Go to www.ceamteam.org to sign up for our e-newsletter.
2. Like Children's Education Alliance of Missouri on Facebook. We share lots of information including our blogs.
3. Follow @ceamteam on Twitter.

Help build the movement

1. Invite CEAM to meet and train parents for advocacy at your school.
2. Encourage parents and staff to sign up for Phone2Action.
3. Complete the CEAM private school survey sent via email in the past several weeks.
4. Make email or personal introductions to other school leaders and CEAM.
5. Host a legislator breakfast at your school. CEAM can help you.
6. Host a film screening. CEAM can help.
7. Host a Town Hall conversation. CEAM can help.
8. Encourage your students to participate in CEAM's new teen program Civic LEAP.
9. Encourage your students to participate in the 2018 Edu-Talk contest.
